

MAYOR SEES WAY OUT OF GARBAGE STRIKE

New York, Nov. 14.—Mayor Gaynor and Commissioner Edwards, claimed today that they would be able to cope with the situation in the strike of the garbage men. Greater progress was made today in cleaning up garbage than any day since the strike began.

Health Commissioner Lederle

POLICE GUARDING THE GARBAGE STRIKE BREAKERS

have 20,000 union teamsters called out in New York to carry on the war against Mayor Gaynor is meeting with opposition from the teamsters.

The question is to be determined late today at a meeting of the Teamsters, Chauffeurs and Helpers' International union.

Crew and Passengers Saved.

Astoria, Ore., Nov. 14.—The passengers and crew of the said that the cold weather had put an end to danger to health from decaying garbage. Edwards said he had 2,000 men at work, and that the strong police protection has given the strikebreakers courage.

The threat made by William H. Ashton, head of the striking street cleaners' union, that he will schooner Washington, which grounded near here yesterday were rescued last night by the tug Tatoosh.

Not a single life was lost, the report that two sailors were washed overboard during the storm proving untrue.